Mississippi River Parkway Commission
Honorary Membership Nomination

State Commission: IOWA MISSISSIPPI RIVER PARKWAY COMMISSION

Name of Honoree: SCOTT TUNNICLIFF

Rationale: (Brief description of nominee's accomplishments. Use additional sheets if necessary)

Scott County Iowa MRPC Commissioner Scott Tunnicliff has served for the last three years as a member of the Iowa Commission. While serving on the Iowa MRPC, Scott has been a member of the Culture and Heritage Committee sharing his expertise in this area at the State and National level. (Note: He is the Director for the Hill Top Campus Village, A Main Street Community in the City of Davenport.) Scott has made yearly visits to the three interpretive centers in Scott County providing them with the ten state MRPC Map, the Iowa tear sheet map and the Iowa Byways booklet, and keeping these center advised of our activities and promotions. He has trained several staffs. Commissioner Tunnicliff participated in promoting the Great River Road at events in Scott County by staffing booths at the Farnam Dinner and the The Great Race while conversing with visitors about the Great River Road in the Quad Cities. Scott has made requests for funding for the Iowa Mississippi River Parkway Commission, Inc., our 501(c)(4) tax exempt organization. He has been highly successful raising funds from several Scott County cities. Commissioner Tunnicliff has met with city councils, board of supervisors, By-State Regional Planning and interpretive centers staffs training them about the Great River Road. He has collaborated with Kathy Wine and River Action, INC. to achieve funding for the First Bridge Project in downtown Davenport. In addition, he has been involved in the completion of the Mississippi River Trail (MRT) in Bettendorf and Riverdale, Iowa. Finally, he has worked with Brian Ritter, Director of NaHant Marsh Education Center to improve signage along the Great River Road (Hwy 22) and Interstate 280 for NaHant Marsh Education Center, a MRPC National Interpretive Center.

It is with great pride the Iowa Mississippi River Parkway Commission nominates Scott Tunnicliff for Honorary Membership on the Mississippi River Parkway Commission.

Recommended by the Iowa Mississippi River Parkway Commission on this 17th day of July, 2017.

Attested to by Iowa State Chair Edith Reiss Pfeffer.
