

Figure 1. 2023 Earth Day and Ribbon Cutting at the LACMERS Building at Fairport Fish Hatchery.

Figure 2. 2024 Earth Day events and celebration at the LACMERS Building at Fairport Fish Hatchery.

Figure 3. Day of Caring 2022, volunteers by newly installed State of Iowa Historical marker and Hatchery sign.

Figure 4. View of State of Iowa Historical marker and Hatchery sign, with original reservoir in the background

Figure 5. National Scenic Byways and Toyota Work Day group photo of students and United Way volunteers.

Figure 6. Existing Bridge in January 2022.

Figure 7. Students assisted FFFH contractors to frame pier footers before pouring concrete in October 2022.

Figure 8. Completed bridge with decorative roof trusses and paving stones, April 2023.

Figure 9. Students and Dave Tometich, teacher, build steps to the Temporary Pumphouse and Blacksmith Shop.

Figure 10. View of the Temporary Pumphouse, former Blacksmith Shop left of photo ca. 75 meters.

Figure 11. High school students planting red buds near the holding house, May 2024.

Figure 12. High school students planting red buds near the hatchery entrance, May 2024.

Figure 13. Boy scouts and volunteers sit on one of five benches donated by Boy Scout troop, April 2025.

Figure 14. Boy Scout bench on top of garage foundation at the far end of the North Trail.

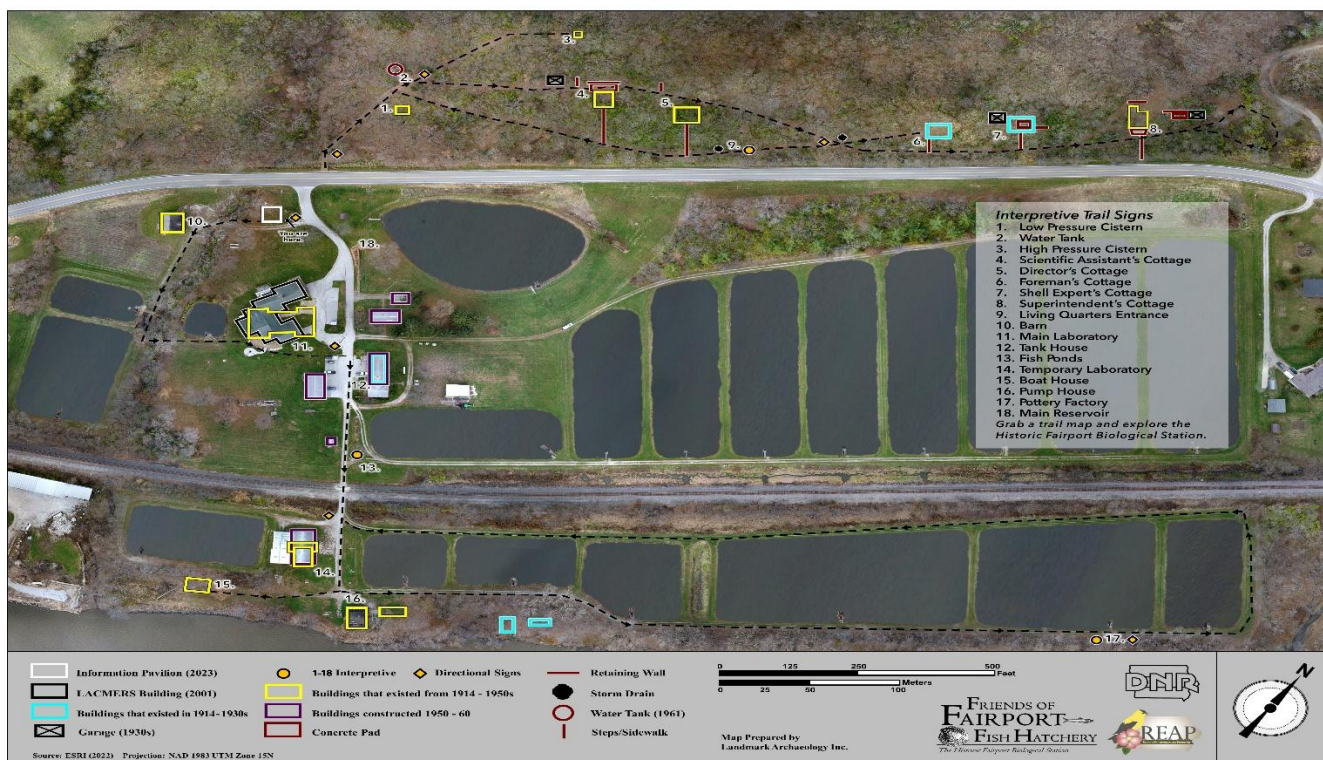

Figure 15. Photo of GIS-based trail map, showing age of buildings and location of interpretive signs.

Figure 16. 2024 United Way Hand Raiser Award for most organization with the most volunteer hours in 2023.

Figure 17. Artifact display case #1, showing carved wooded box made by German POW and his violin.

Figure 18. FFFH members accepting the Tom Hendricks Community Service Initiative Award.